

WEBINAR — Monday, July 18 | 10 - 11 a.m. (EDT)

Kentucky Education & Workforce Development Cabinet Secretary Hal Heiner invites officials from business/industry, secondary/technical/postsecondary education, local government, workforce development agencies, and economic development organizations to participate in a live webinar detailing implementation of the Work Ready Skills Initiative.

The new $100 million statewide bond program is aimed at building a highly trained, modernized workforce in the Commonwealth to meet the needs of employers and promote sustainable incomes for Kentuckians.

This webinar will provide an overview of the initiative, including in-depth discussion of eligible projects, sustainable partnerships, and the application process.

To connect to the free webinar, please click on the following web link shortly before 10:00:

>> <http://mediaportal.education.ky.gov/watch-live/>

You may also submit questions in real time during the webinar, by emailing Andy Hightower (Kentucky Education & Workforce Development Cabinet – Senior Policy Advisor) at workreadyskills@ky.gov.